

IEDC Brownfields Redevelopment Workshop Scheduled

The International Economic Development Council's Brownfields Redevelopment Workshop will be held August 13-14, in Indianapolis, Indiana at the Hyatt Regency Indianapolis at State Capitol. This workshop will address the main hurdles hindering brownfields redevelopment and discuss concrete resources that can be used for the redevelopment of sites. National and local experts will engage attendees in candid discussion of critical issues in brownfields redevelopment. Share your experiences, learn from others and brainstorm on how to make the process easier.

The cost for the full two-day workshop and the accompanying Brownfields Redevelopment Manual before July 15th is $95 for IEDC members and $110 for non-members. After July 15, the cost is $145 for IEDC members and $160 for non-members. Hotel reservation cutoff is July 12th. Please contact the hotel directly at (800)233-1234 for your room reservation.
